27.02-18 / Ivo Dimchev LIVE at Agora Collective

If you missed Ivo Dimchev's sold out concert in Berlin last November, now you have another chance!!

In this concert Ivo Dimchev will sing some of his most iconic songs, taken out of the context of his shows as well as his music albums. His breathtaking voice will bring out once again the dark poetry of his lyrics, making for a haunting and deeply moving musical experience.

CD's of Ivo Dimchev's latest music album "Sculptures" as well as Ivo Dimchev's book "Ivo Dimchev Stage Works 2002-2016" will be also available for sale during the concert.

Ivo Dimchev music on Youtube:

Ivo Dimchev music on Soundcloud:

IVO DIMCHEV (1976) is a choreographer and performer from Bulgaria, known internationally for his provocative and often controversial works of performance art. His work is an extreme and colorful mixture of performance art, dance, theatre, music, drawings, and photography. Dimchev is an author of more than 30 performances. He has received numerous international awards for dance and theatre and has presented his work across Europe, South America, and North America.

WHEN?
Tuesday, 27th February 2018 at Agora Collective
Doors open @ 20:00 // Concert starts @ 21:00

Send us an email contact@somethinggreat.de with your name and the number of tickets you would like to have. Please note that reserved tickets will have to be picked up until 19h30 otherwise they will be sold. Thanks for your comprehension!